

Photograph 60. Structure 110, 23 St. Casmir Avenue. A four-story concrete industrial building, constructed in 1906 as part of Mott Mill.

Photograph 61. Structure 111, 35 St. Casmir Avenue. A six-story concrete industrial structure, constructed during the first quarter of the 20th century.

Photograph 62. Structure 112, 259 Nepperhan Avenue. St. Casmir Roman Catholic Church, a gothic style brick church, constructed in 1925.

Photograph 63. Structure 113, [24] St. Casimir Avenue. A two-story concrete building with intact windows, constructed c. 1910.

Photograph 64. Structure 114, 239 Nepperhan Avenue, the John Copcutt Mansion, now St. Casimir's Rectory. A 2½-story irregularly coursed granite house with Italianate details, constructed c. 1854.

Photograph 65. Structure 116, 223-225 Nepperhan Avenue. A four-story brick mixed-use building, constructed c. 1900.

Photograph 66. Structure 117, 219-221 Nepperhan Avenue. A four-story brick mixed-use building, constructed c. 1900.

Photograph 67. Structure 122, Yonkers Recreational Pier on Main Street at Hudson River. A two-story cast iron pier, constructed in 1901.

Photograph 68. Structure 124, 92 Main Street. The Yonkers Trolley Barn is a three-story brick building, constructed in 1903.

Photograph 69. Structure 125, [41] Buena Vista Avenue. A two-story brick power house attached to Yonkers Trolley Barn (Structure 124), constructed c. 1903.

Photograph 70. Structure 128, 47 Buena Vista Avenue. A two-story brick structure constructed c. 1895 as an annex to Teutonia Hall.

Photograph 71. Structure 129, 49-51 Buena Vista Avenue. Yonkers Teutonia Hall is a two-story masonry building with terra cotta and cast iron details, constructed in 1891.

Photograph 72. Structure 130, 53-55 Buena Vista Avenue. A one-story brick masonry industrial building, constructed c. 1915.

Photograph 73. Structure 132, 64 Hudson Street. A two-story wood-frame house with Italianate details, constructed c. 1880.

Photograph 74. Structure 135, 79-81 Main Street. The Yonkers U.S. Post Office is a two-story Classical Revival structure with limestone panels, constructed in 1927 under supervision of architect James A. Wetmore.

Photograph 75. Structure 137, 63-65 Main Street. A four-story brick masonry mixed-use commercial building with intact storefronts, constructed c. 1895.

Photograph 76. Structure 139, 72 Main Street. A three-story brick mixed-use building with Italianate brackets, constructed c. 1875.

Photograph 77. Structure 143, 21 Hudson Street. The Congregational Queduct, Synagogue is a brick synagogue, constructed c. 1880.

Photograph 78. Structure 144, 40 Main Street. A four-story brick industrial structure, constructed c. 1930.

Photograph 79. Structure 145, 36 Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with Italianate cornice and mural, constructed c.1880.

Photograph 80. Structure 147, 38 A Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with decorative brickwork, constructed c.1885.

Photograph 81. Structure 148, 50 Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use building with brownstone window hoods and Italianate pressed metal cornice, constructed c.1875.

Photograph 82. Structure 149, 52 Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use building with brownstone window hoods and Italianate pressed metal cornice, constructed c.1875.

Photograph 83. Structure 150, 61 Main Street. A two-story brick commercial building, constructed during the first quarter of the 20th century.

Photograph 84. Structure 152, 55 Main Street. The former Gazette Building is a three-story brick commercial structure, constructed c. 1890.

Photograph 85. Structure 155, 47 Main Street. A one-story brick commercial structure with intact storefront, constructed c. 1900.

Photograph 86. Structure 156, 41 Main Street. A two-story brick mixed-use structure, constructed c.1920.

Photograph 87. Structure 157, 28-36 Larkin Plaza. A four-story brick industrial building with intact windows, constructed c.1910.

Photograph 88. Structure 159, 37 Main Street. The former Paco Grocery is a four-story brick mixed-use building with Italianate pressed metal cornice, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 89. Structure 160, 35 Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with cast iron columns and pressed metal cornice, constructed c.1895.

Photograph 90. Structures 164, 165 and 166; 14, 16-18 and 20 Warburton Avenue. These four-story brick mixed-use buildings were constructed during the last quarter of the 19th century. Structure 14 was formerly known as Revodale Furniture.

Photograph 91. Structure 167, 12 Warburton Avenue. A two-story brick mixed-use building, formerly known as Decomer Management Company, constructed c. 1900 in the neoclassical style.

Photograph 92. Structure 169, 4-8 Warburton Avenue. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with terracotta or stone details. Formerly known as Dorothy Furniture, it was constructed c.1895.

Photograph 93. Structure 170, 27 Main Street. A one-story commercial building, presently covered with stucco. Initially constructed in the early 20th century.

Photograph 94. Structure 172, 25 Main Street. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with a cornice consisting of brackets, dentil molding and vine motifs, constructed c. 1880.

Photograph 95. Structures 174 and 175, 17 and 15 Main Street. A pair of three-story brick masonry mixed-use structures with Italianate detailing, constructed c. 1870.

Photograph 96. Structure 176, 13 Main Street. A three-story brick structure with large fireproof warehouse attached constructed c.1900, with c.1930 alterations to the commercial front.

Photograph 97. Structure 177, 22 Main Street. A two-story masonry commercial building, constructed during the first half of the 20th century.

Photograph 98. Structure 178, 18-20 Main Street. A one-story marble-faced commercial structure, constructed during the first quarter of the 20th century.

Photograph 99. Structure 179, 16 Main Street. A three-story brick mixed-use building with stucco front, constructed c. 1900.

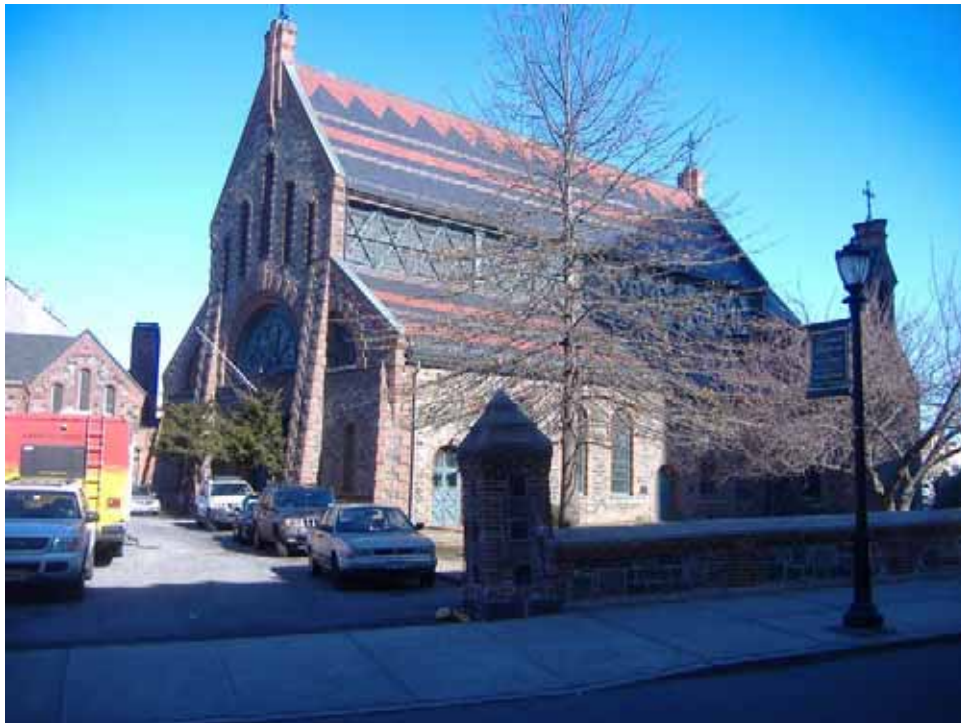

Photograph 100. Structure 180, 14 Main Street. A two-story brick mixed-use building incorporating pantiles and bracketed cornice, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 101. Structure 181, 12 Main Street. A five-story brick commercial building, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 102. Structure 187, 5 South Broadway. A two-story brick mixed-use structure with Art Deco details, constructed c.1925.

Photograph 103. Structure 189, 1 Hudson Street, St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, with portions constructed in 1752, 1849, 1874 and 1890. The 1874 work was the work of architect Edward Tuckerman Potter.

Photograph 104. Structure 191, 3 Main Street. A two-story brick masonry building with stone front, formerly Yonkers Trust Company, constructed c.1910.

Photograph 105. Structure 193, 5-7 North Broadway. A two-story mixed-use commercial building, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 106. Structure 194, 9 North Broadway. Formerly known as the Hudson Residence, this four-story terracotta fronted building retains its elaborate details, and was constructed c.1925.

Photograph 107. Structure 195, 11-13 North Broadway. A two-story brick mixed-use structure, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 108. Structure 196, 15-23 North Broadway. A four-story brick masonry commercial structure, known as the Wheeler Block, constructed c.1890.

Photograph 109. Structure 197, 25A-29 North Broadway. A four-story brick commercial structure, formerly known as the McCann Building, constructed c.1895.

Photograph 110. Structure 198, 26 North Broadway. A four-story brick mixed-use structure with decorative brickwork, constructed c.1890.

Photograph 111. Structure 199, 24-24B North Broadway. A four-story brick masonry mixed-use building with brick cornice, constructed in 1890.

Photograph 112. Structure 200, 20-22 North Broadway. A three-story brick masonry mixed-use structure with decorative brick pilasters, constructed c.1900.

Photograph 113. Structure 202, 14 North Broadway. A five-story brick mixed-use structure, constructed c.1890.

Photograph 114. Structure 203, 10 North Broadway. A two-story brick commercial structure with limestone cornice, constructed c.1920.

Photograph 115. Structure 204, 6-8 North Broadway. A four-story brick commercial structure with geometric design on cornice, constructed c.1915.

Photograph 116. Structure 205, 1 Palisade Avenue. A two-story masonry commercial structure, constructed c.1930.

Photograph 117. Structure 206, 16 South Broadway. A five-story commercial structure, formerly Manhattan Savings Bank, constructed c.1900.